

I would like the no call list criteria to at least remain the same. In my opinion not even political candidates or charities should be able to call someone at their home. These calls are an intrusion on citizens privacy and should be banned completely.